Description

In CFO Risk Assessment Tips, Tricks & Best Practices, ExecSense examines how CFOs should be updating their risk assessment processes in the current economy. Take the 60 minutes to view this webinar (on your computer, mobile phone, iPod or printed out) to understand how you can immediately implement these important strategies to improve the way your team and company assess and manage financial risk.

If you cannot call-in to attend the webinar and view the presentation at 5:00 EST Tuesday, March 23rd, ExecSense will email you the PowerPoint, audio and supplementary files by the next day for viewing at your convenience (you simply need to register before the webinar occurs). If you would like to ask an anonymous question or request a specific topic to be covered during the webinar, please email the moderator at amandav@execsense.com after you have registered to attend.

The webinar is led by an expert at helping CFOs update their risk assessment processes, Michael Bechara, and focuses on:

- Everything you need to know in 60 minutes about how you should be re-evaluating and updating your team and company's risk assessment/management processes
- Tips, tricks and best practices that you can immediately implement that will make you better prepared for important situations that CFOs need to be ready to deal with
- How other top CFOs are assessing risk and what you need to know about the processes they put in place to prepare for the most important problems that could occur
- Answers to the ten questions most asked by CFOs (and their CEOs) about establishing a risk profile and the role of the CFO in dealing with these risks
- Case studies of other leading CFOs that have had success re-evaluating and updating the way their company assesses and manages risk, and important lessons learned from CFOs who did not have adequate processes in place

Praise for ExecSense Webinars:

"Thorough, informative and interesting...an efficient, effective means of gaining in depth insight into topics that affect every executive's business decision-making."
- Greg Nowak, Partner, Pepper Hamilton

"Well organized, well articulated, and easy to follow. The ExecSense webinar I attended was the best virtual learning experience I've had in quite some time." –
Brian K. Moore, HR Communications, Humana

"...get leading intelligence without ever leaving your office." – Alex Wilmerding, Vice President, Citigroup

As with any ExecSense webinar, if you are not 100% satisfied, you can exchange it for any other webinar. Upon ordering, ExecSense will email you the call-in number for you to listen from your office or mobile phone while viewing the PowerPoint slides (while you can view the PowerPoint online as a webinar, we will also be emailing you the PowerPoint file so you can listen offline, print out the slides, or even transfer the slide jpegs to view on your Blackberry/iPhone/iPod).
